

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR CAMPERS AT AGAPÉ

Our goal for each child attending a summer camp program is to have an experience of Christian Community in which the camper is safe, grows spiritually and socially. During a week in camp, in the course of activities, it is natural that there will be conflicts within cabin groups and between campers and their counselors. It is in resolving these conflicts—in the give and take of negotiation—that some of the most important lessons of a week at camp are learned.

Occasionally, however, behavior on the part of a camper may become so disruptive as to require removal from a week of camp because conflicts cannot be resolved. Therefore, the following guidelines are presented for children during their week in camp. Parents are encouraged to review these guidelines with their children.

1. Use language appropriate for Christian community.
2. Respect the rights, privacy, and property of others.
3. Respect the property equipment, and facilities of the camp.
4. Wear appropriate clothes for activities as suggested by camp staff.
5. Follow camp schedules (meal times, lights out, etc.)
6. Do not engage in any acts of physical, sexual, or verbal abuse (camper/camper or camper/staff).
7. Abide by the rules and regulations of the camp.
8. Possession of alcohol or any illegal substance is prohibited.
9. Campers are encouraged to participate in all camp activities to best of their ability.
10. Campers may leave their cabin group only with the permission of the cabin counselor.

Camper's Responsibility: In signing this section, I agree to abide by all regulations governing personal conduct and use of camp property. I am aware that I am expected to cooperate and participate in camp activities. If I do not cooperate or if I become a hindrance to the camp program, I understand I will be sent home.
